

ESTONIAN MUSIC WEEK

Let's celebrate together: Estonian Music Week in Toronto

Estonian Music Week will take place May 24-29, 2018 to celebrate Estonia's 100th anniversary of independence. 50 Estonian singers and instrumentalists will make the trip overseas to collaborate with Canadian artists to mark this historic occasion.

The event is jointly organized by the Estonian Studies Centre/VEMU in Toronto and by the Creative Collective Avarus in Estonia. Together the team has created a vibrant week of concerts staged in some of Toronto's finest concert venues, and showcasing a stellar lineup of top Estonian musical artists in many genres, along with stunning Canadian counterparts.

Purchase your tickets via our website: www.estonianmusicweek.ca or at Tartu College (use Bloor St. entrance), the Estonian Credit Union, and the Koerner Hall Box Office (for May 26* and 28* performances only).

Ticket buyers for the Hugh's Room Live and Lula Lounge concerts now also have the option to book a dinner reservation; however, tickets purchased through the EMW website for Lula Lounge are for the concert only. See the website for details.

Check out the website for more information about the artists, concerts, and to sign up for our weekly newsletter: www.estonianmusicweek.ca.